

CICERO Learning Symposium:

Learning and the Brain: Building Collaborative Frameworks for Neuroscience,
Learning and Education

Siltavuorenpenger 20 C, Lecture Theatre 2

FRIDAY, 30th MARCH, 2007

PROGRAMME

- 8.30 Registration and morning coffee
- 9.00 Welcome
Professor Patrik Scheinin, Dean, Faculty of Behavioural Sciences, University of Helsinki
Professor Kristiina Kumpulainen, Director of CICERO Learning
- 9.30 Collaborative Frameworks for Neuroscience and Education: Reflections from ESRC-TLRP Seminar Series in the UK
Dr Sue Pickering and Dr Paul Howard-Jones, University of Bristol
- 10.00 Keynote: Adventures on the Road from Brain Scan to Lesson Plan: The Fostering of Creativity in Drama Education
Dr Paul Howard-Jones, University of Bristol
- 10.30 Coffee Break
- 10.50 Keynote: Human Memory and Learning - Neural Mechanisms
Professor Christina M. Krause, University of Helsinki
- 11.30 Attention Assessment in School Context, a Pilot Study
Ms Helena Thuneberg and Dr Risto Hotulainen, University of Helsinki
- 12.00 Buffet Lunch (at Siltavuorenpenger 20R, floor K1)
- 13.00 Keynote: The Brain in the Classroom: What do Teachers think about Neuroscience and Education?
Dr Sue Pickering, University of Bristol
- 13.30 Panel Discussion and Conclusion
Chairs: Academy Professor Mikko Sams, Helsinki University of Technology
Professor Kristiina Kumpulainen, Director of CICERO Learning
Panel: Dr Risto Hotulainen, Dr Paul Howard-Jones, Prof. Christina M. Krause, Dr Sue Pickering, Ms Helena Thuneberg
- 14.30 Wine reception

Please visit www.cicero.fi for further information.

The symposium is organised with the support of